

Welcome to the 2005 Encampment!

Welcome to the 2005 Vermont Wing Encampment. Today the cadets arrived and had to go through in-processing, also they had to go through a contraband check before they headed to the barracks. Once they were done with sign in the flight staff took the cadets to their barracks and made sure they knew how they were supposed to set up their living areas for the week.

Cadets make sure you clean your areas everyday, because you will be inspected daily. Flight staff should have already given you advice on what to do so make it happen! This place is your home for the week and a half so you want your area as clean as possible.

After the cadets settled in they sat down with their assigned flights and went over the handbooks, gathered information on what they are going to be doing for the rest of the week.

- C/CMSgt Amberly Bonilla
Public Affairs Officer
2005 VTWG Encampment

News Letter Naming Contest

As some of you might know, this is a new year for the Vermont Wing Encampment program. We are starting fresh all around. We want you, the cadets, to vote on the name of our Encampment news letter. We will give you some choices that you can vote on, or if you don't like what you see then tell us what you want! Your choices are:

- A) Wind Breeze
- B) Encampment Chronicles
- C) Encampment Times
- D) Wing Tips
- E) Encampment Herald
- F) You tell us! :_____

Please take this morning to think about your choices and submit your votes to your Flight Sergeants at Lunch time.

A cadet going through a contraband check

Encampment 1st Sergeant
Nick Comerci